Foreword

The 1830 Census, Tippecanoe County, Indiana, was copied from the photostat of the original, Volume 19, in the National Archives. The census includes 7,187 persons residing in the townships of Shelby, Wabash, Tippecanoe, Wayne, Sheffield, Perry, Randolph, Jackson and Fairfield. The name of the township enumerated is given on the first page enumerating its residents and generally an indication is made when the township enumeration is ended. Pages 34-35 are headed Fairfield township after two pages of enumeration of Sheffield township; a notation appears "see the end of Fairfield." The pages shown are those on the census volume. The township designation does not appear at the head of each page.

The total number in each family and the total for each column by age designations were copied from the census, and then checked on an adding machine for accuracy. This method insured that the entries were correctly made. The general recapitulation showing total residents in each township and for entire county on pages 106-107 was copied, but not the detailed recapitulations by age groups on pages 99-100 and 104-105.

Mrs. Martha W. Robertson
836 Shawnee Avenue
Lafayette, Indiana

Dear Mrs. Robertson:

I am inclosing the original and one carbon of the 1830 Census, Tippecanoe County, Indiana, which I have copied from the census in the National Archives, Volume 19.

Every effort has been made to insure its accuracy as to names and the age designations by numbers of males and females. I made a check of the totals by addition on the adding machine. The totals represent the totals entered by the enumerator and often various adjustments in the figures were made. The final figure was copied and from my addition the columnar figures shown are correct.

The charge for the copying from the original census is $55.00; added thereto is $10 to cover expenses of special ruled paper, bond paper for the inclosed copies and carbon paper. This make a total of $65.00. I am making no charge for the typing which has consumed a week's work, nor for the checking on the adding machine. That part is my donation to the historical society.

I sincerely hope that the census will be of use to members of the society and it has been a pleasure to contribute to the library of the society.

Very truly yours,

Mabel Van Dyke Baer
